DEDICATION

A hand slowly spreads up over the keyboard of a table model L. C. Smith, one finger rises slowly and poises uncertainly for a moment over a key then plunges madly downward, slips off the side and into the space between the rows. The owner of the finger, a typing Istudent, with some embarrassment extricates the finger and with great determination continues, rapidly gaining confidence, skill and speed.

The teacher who takes these uncertain fingers in hand and trains them to maneuver with skill and confidence over the keyboards and conducts them with efficiency through the manipulations of various other business machines has sent many of her students into the business world to delight their employers with the great efficiency and skill which they acquired under the very excellent instruction of a very excellent instructor, Mrs. Irene Sikkenga, to whom we, the staff of the 1957 Vikings' Echo, dedicate our annual.

DEDICATION

We, the annual class of '57, dedicate this page of the yearbook to Van and Maurice. They have served us faithfully as our custodians for many years. During their stay they have won the respect and friendship of all the students. We wish in this small way to express our gratitude to them for making our school an enjoyable place by their friendly ways and pleasant smiles.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

I, Barbara Alfredson, will my short hair to Jilleen Grieve.
I, Danial Anderson, will my position on the football team to anyone who can center the ball.
I, Dorothy Arman, will the parking place in my back yard to Gordy McLouth so he won't have to drive so far out of Montague.
I, Ken Beausang, will my ability to lose weight to Pat Seymour, as she is always complaining that she has to go on a diet.
I, Dave Benner, will my ability to play golf to Coach Iverson.
I, Ethel Berta, will my rioting week ends in South Bend, Indiana, to Barb Edson and Peg Krapf, who probably wouldn't know how to use them anyway.
I, Carol Brown, will my dimples to Janice Armstrong so she can have a nick-name too.
I, Marcella Burch, will all my books to anyone who wants to study hard.
I, George Byam, will my turned down collar to Leroy Waterman.
I, Bobbie Caviness, will my quietness to my "little" brother, Charlie.
I, Dick Dahlstrom, will my reputation of being the last one out of the showers after practice to Jon Swenson for further annoyance to the coaches for the next three years.
I, Dolores DeBree, will my ability to stay slim to Mr. Iverson.
I, Ruth DeMoor, will my height to Dan Kozera.
I, Norma Jean Eck, will my mild temper to Janeen Morat.
I, Sharlene Elwell, will my nick-name "shy" to Nancy Yeager.
I, Pat Gee, will my straight hair to Marcia Collins.
I, Ron Glover, will my football uniform to Ron Johnson if it's not too small.
I, Lillian Gonser, will my books to anyone who wants to take them.
I, Terry Gravengood, will my hugeness to Ken Ledford.
I, Ray Holden, will my hair cut to Terry Kesteloot.
I, John Hubbard, will my position on the line to a better man so Charlie O'Connell won't have to work so hard backing up . . . . the line.
I, Terry Brenner, will my engineering boots to anyone who has enough ambition to polish them.
I, Tom Brierly, will my student council treasury job to anyone with a degree in accounting.
I, Janete Elsenheimer, will my ability to keep quiet once in a while to Sidney Harvey.
I, Marian Reed, will my sense of humor to Roberta Kubik.
I, Jim Brumm, will my ability to dance to Tom Marsh who needs it.
I, Norma Gonser, will Psychology to Peggy Sherwood.
I, Leon Bedwell, will my motorcycle jacket, my sideburns, and my frog sticker to Leroy Waterman to help him become a better hood.
I, Denny Jaekel, will my car to Mr. Towner's drivers training class of '58.
I, Donna Jaekel, will my twin brother, Denny, to the freshman girls.
I, Pat McDonald, will my nick-name given to me by the senior boys to anyone who feels qualified to use it.
I, Larry Worden will my very cultured senior manners to all ignorant Juniors.
I, Gloria Bushaw, will my size 40 Jantzens to Nancy Yeager.
I, Ernestine Johnson, will my ability to get engaged to Marlene Middlecamp.
I, Sandy Kelley, will some of my weight to my brother Carey.
I, Ron Kettring, will my membership in the bachelor's club to my brother, Dennis, and hope that he will remain as long as I have.
I, Jill Nash, will my weight to Sandy Bloomberg.
I, Nancy Nielsen, will my long black hair to Dolores Forbes to match her short black roots.
I, Pam Oldt, will my natural blond hair to Dolores Forbes.
I, Florence Olsen, will to Laura Lee Pearson, my calm and collected ways for use in time of crisis.
I, Harold Olson, will my ability to drive to Howie Pratt.
I, George Riddell, being of sound mind, will it to Nancy Yeager.
I, Don Riegler, will my Mercury to anyone who is man enough to drive it.
I, Jerry Rogers, will my ability not to get a traffic ticket to Jerry Tate.
I, Carlotta Schecter, will my slim ankles to Sidney Harvey.
I, Virginia Seebald, will my title as being gullible to the freshman girls.
I, Rosie Sharp, will my devilish ways and my enthusiasm to "Live it up" to the present freshman girls.

I, Laural Snell, will all my Boy Scout boy friends to Pat Jansick.
I, Art Snider, will Duck Lake to the birds.
I, Ellen Spicklemire, will my ability to keep a straight face in Physics class to Marriam Estlund.
I, Sally Uithoven, will my lowering block that Ed Kesteloot willed me last year to Dan Kozera.
I, Sandy Wackerow, will my ability to keep all my old boy friends to my sister, Judy, and hope that she can hang on to them longer than I did.
I, Brian Wallis, will my nickname to any girls who can use it.
I, Nancy Woirol, will all my Saturday night fun at Rothbury to Laural Economan.
I, John Maslen, will my Great Snozole to Ken Ledford.
I, Nancy Boerema, will my "perfect attendance record" to anyone who wants it.
I, Noel Dietz, will my ability to fall asleep in Mr. Fanburgs senior science class to any next year senior who wants it.
I, John Berlin, will my nick-name to Sidney Harvey.
I, Jane Jacobs, will my good times to Roberta Kubik.

CLASS PROPHECY

We find that Barb Alfredson is now married to Ron Decker and they are busy raising their six double Deckers. After his splendid performance as Stage Manager in the Junior and Senior plays, Dan Anderson has gone on to fame as Curtain Boy at the Met. Dorothy Arman is teaching a class at Duck Lake entitled "Underwater Tactics." Ken Beausang is playing the clown in Pagliacci. The latest rock and roll rage replacing Elvis Presley is none other than our own Leon Bedwell. The National Open Golf Tournament finds Dave Benner as the leading contender among the dark horses. John Berlin is still trying to find a way home from Washington where he was stranded on the Seniors Boys' trip. Holding a partnership in the firm Johnson & Johnson House Painters is our home town gal Ethel Berta. Nancy Boerema is a hula dancer at the Wai Ki Ki Night Club in Chicago. Sergeant Terry Brenner is on a world wide crime mop up with Mickey Spillane. Tom Brierley has gone on an expedition to the wilds of Rothbury to study the fine art of head shrinking. Carol Brown is now head ice cream dipper at Dowkers. Jim Brumm, the Southern Gentleman, is teaching dancing and owner of the Jim Brumm Studios in Dalton. Marcella Burch now owns and operates her own radio transmitting station in the Arctic Circle, URKZ. Gloria Bushaw is operating Frenchy's Drag Strip in China for coolies. George Byam has been competing in contests and has now won great recognition by adding another title, Iowa State Fair Champion Hog Caller. Bobbie Caviness went on an elephant safari and finally found Ivory. A new member has been added to Camp Claybanks Staff -- Morale Booster, Marcia Cook. Dick Dahlstrom has finally made the Detroit Tiger's Team -- Bat Boy. Dolores DeBree is now modeling $1.98 bathing suits at Kresge's Dime Store in Muskegon. It seems Ruth DeMoor has put on a little weight since she left Whitehall. She now holds the title of 400 pound Rootchie at the Ringley Brothers Circus. Noel Dietz has organized the National Association for the Continuation of Sleep. Glenda Dutton has a patent for manufacturing ice boxes in the Antarctic. Norma Jean Eck has won the 1958 favorite check-out girl award and upon arriving in Hawaii discovered she had a one-way ticket. The training acquired at Whitehall has served Janete Elsenheimer in good stead. She has advanced to the position of Head Majorette in the Salvation Army Band. We find that Sharlene Elwell has taken over Camp Wolverine and is really making a go of it. Pat Gee is now calling square dances at Edson's Hayloft. Our reporters inform us that Ron Glover is working as a filibuster for the U. S. Senate on draft dodgers. Lillian Gonser has left on a missionary expedition to Jivaro land. Norma Gonser has recently been sent to the House of Parliament in Burma as a Lobbyist. We find Terry Gravengood taking over Mr. Geist's job as Sociology instructor at W.H.S. Ray Holden is trying to isolate the deadly paccilli female, (pnuemonoultra microscopic sillico vocalno coniosis.) The Air Force has named John Hubbard as its own Rudolph Valentino. Jane Jacobs has recently received a medal for sending the most letters to the Lonely Hearts Club. Denny Jaekel is administering dragability tests for General Motors. Donna Jaekel has finally reached her high goal by becoming manager of the goldfish department at Klinefelter's. Ernestine Johnson is having lots of fun raising her brood of "57." Here's a bit of advice to the Senior girls of '67: If you have weight problems contact Sandra Kelley who has taken over the Whitehall branch of Slenderella. Is it true that Pat McDonald has lived up to her nickname? John Maslen, the snoz, is seriously trying to patent the Maslen "nose-muff" in Alaska. Fidelia Moore is holding a grand opening for her Teen Town in North Muskegon. After starring in the Senior Play Jill Nash went to Broadway and made a splash hit in "Romeo and Juliet" when she fell from the balcony. Nancy Nielsen has joined the Navy with Don and they are now raising little Waves. A new attraction at the Charcoal Pit is Pam Oldt who plays dinner music and carries charcoal. Florence Olsen now has reign over room 21 as Whitehall High's most beloved speech teacher. Harold Olsen is head of the Alcholic Division of the Michigan State Police. Marian Reed, a prominent member of the Mole's Club, has taken up the royal robe of Princess of Molevania. George Riddell now has his own combo and is known as Saxy Riddell and his Saxy Six; they are now playing on Muskegon's own Broadway, Ottowa Street. Don Reigler is now the leader of Chicago's most notorious car-stripping gang. Jerry Rogers has recently been arrested for robbing his father's jewelry store and is now spending five years in the musty, dingy cells of Hart's jail. Carlotta Schecter has spilled a bottle of peroxide on her red hair and is now booked as the "Blonde Bombshell" in the Follies. Virginia Seebald has finally reached the point where she is using her head. She is now dodging baseballs at the Carnival Baseball Throw. After losing her voice, Rosie Sharp is majoring in sign language at Farouk University. Laurel Snell has moved to California and is still prospecting for gold--class rings that is. The other night Art Snider was found checking the parking meters at Duck Lake with the able assistance of Sally. Ellen Spicklemire is Assistant-Manager of the Kettring-Kaiak Works in Alaska. We just received a letter from Gayle Tiffany in Germany saying that she still has not found Dave. It seems she is now spending her days in a Concentration Camp. Sally Uithoven has passed her bar examination to the Nightspot. Sandy Wackerow, the most flirtacious girl in the Senior class, is now in Reno plugging for her fourth divorce. Brian Wallis is now manufacturing his nickname given to him by the Senior boys. Nancy Woirol is now writing a book on "The Sex Life of the Amoeba." Larry Worden is now authorized to sell vitamins to undernourished Indians on a reservation in Arizona.
